

CLINIC

SAM LYLE & MICHELLE BAKER

SAT 4 & SUN 5 NOVEMBER

Join one of Australia's most highly regarded Eventing riders and coaches Sam Lyle alongside Grand Prix Dressage rider and coach Michelle Baker for a 2-day clinic at Riverview Farm.

For the past 15 years Sam has produced high quality 3 star eventers while being heavily involved in coaching. He has been the Assistant Coach on two Trans-Tasman teams, a World Championship team and an Olympic Games and the head Coach for the Australian Young Rider Team.

Michelle is one of Australia's top dressage rider having trained and ridden many horses to top levels including Cold Stream Dante, her Grand Prix horse. She is an accredited NCAS Level 2 coach and works with NSW Dressage and Eventing NSW as a coach for the high performance eventing squad.

The clinic is being hosted in conjunction with National Capital Horse Trials, is suitable for all horse and rider levels and previous Eventing experience is not necessary. Riders will be matched in classes of 2 for Dressage and Showjumping and 4 for the Cross Country.

Riverview Farm is located on the Cotter Road, 6km from Equestrian Park. Saturday will be hosted at Riverview Farm and Sunday will be at nearby Equestrian Park. Riverview has a kitchen, hot and cold wash bays, yards, float and truck parking with power and overnight paddocks and stables available.
